

Welcome to our Village

Playcentre

Playcentre is the largest parent-led provider of early childhood education in New Zealand. See children delight in their surroundings, play with them, alongside them and encourage them to interact with others, while you meet other parents and educators.

- A child-centred programme based on individual interests
- A rich variety of quality play and learning resources and experiences
- A high adult child ratio
- Caters for ages 0–6 so that siblings can come

- Involvement in your child's early childhood education
- Friendship with other parents and caregivers
- Whānau social occasions
- A sense of community and belonging
- A free education programme

We offer 3 free visits before you join

With over
420 centres
