

Waiata – Ehara i te mea

Ehara i te mea
Nō nāianeī te aroha
Nō ngā tūpuna
Tuku iho, tuku iho

Te whenua, te whenua
Te oranga o te iwi
Nō ngā tūpuna
Tuku iho, tuku iho

Whakapono
Tūmanako
Te Aroha ki te iwi
Nō ngā tūpuna
Tuku iho, tuku iho

Kaitito (Composer): Eru Timoko Ihaka nō Te Kao (Te Aupōuri)

Whakataukī
Te toto o te tāngata he kai, te oranga o te tāngata he whenua
Food is the blood of the people, but the welfare of the people lies in the land

The land is not just a source of sustenance to the body but also a source of wellbeing; physically, mentally and spiritually.

Song – Not the thing of recent times

Not the thing of recent time is love, but by the ancestors it has been passed down, passed down.

From the land, the land comes the wellbeing of the people; by the ancestors it has been passed down, passed down.

Faith, hope, love, by the ancestors they have been passed down, passed down.
