

Communication

Language skills for a range of purposes

Expression through music, art, crafts and design

Literacy

Considerable experience with books and book language

Concepts about print, such as directionality and that written words represent the spoken

Mathematics

Concepts about numbers and counting

Sorting, labelling, recognising patterns and establishing 'fair shares'

Individual responsibility

Making choices, setting own goals and using initiative

Self-care skills

Gross and fine motor skills

Manipulative skills in a variety of settings

Safe use of a range of equipment

When I play at

Playcentre

I am learning skills for school

Social skills with peers

Working co-operatively

Understanding concepts about rules, rights and fairness

Logical problem-solving

Flexibility and creativity in applying ideas and techniques to new problems

Observation, identification, description and investigation of change

Curiosity

Using discovery, invention, innovation, imagination, experimentation and exploration

Confidence that their interests will be recognised and built on

Perseverance

Able to sustain projects

Enjoy repeating favourite stories and activities

Social skills with adults

Strategies for getting help

Effectively communicating needs